[14~15] 다음 글을 읽고 물음에 답하시오.

Not long ago, many western doctors laughed at the suggestion that they might learn something from traditional Asian ways of healing. Most of them thought that Asian herbal medicine and acupuncture were based upon superstition with no scientific evidence to support them. The scientific age of antibiotics or "miracle drugs" encouraged the public to believe that there must be a pill for every illness. While in many cases, these "pills" did help; in many other cases, their effectiveness was only temporary and did not remove the real cause of the illness. Moreover, as a result of this treatment, diseases have quickly evolved to resist it.

[정답] how rapid the global warming rate is

18. 다음 글의 요지를 쓰시오.

Medical science continues to improve, but in many cases it is not the medical science itself, but the lack of suitable donors that creates problems for organ transplants. Many people do not register as a donor for religious reasons, but others do not because of simple negligence.

[정답] 의학의 발달에도 불구하고 종교적인 이유와 단순한 무관심으로 장기 기증자가 부족하다.

19. 다음 글을 읽고 포스트모더니즘과 모더니즘의 차이점을 간략히 설명하시오.

Postmodernism continues to question the anti-establishment intellectual tradition of modernism. But postmodernism also differs significantly from modernism. Modernism was in many ways an elitist movement that placed art in a privileged realm; modernists rejected the average, common, and ordinary. Postmodernists, in contrast, attempt to incorporate mass culture—television, cartoons, popular music, advertising, etc—into their art.

[정답] 포스트모더니즘: 대중문화를 예술에 포함시킴

모더니즘: 예술을 엘리트의 특권 영역으로 보았음
